MISSING AS FISHING SMACK GOES DOWN

Schooner Margaret Foundered in Storm Off Bug Light in Chesapeake Bay.

12 MEN IN CREW OF BOAT

Government Tug Reno Picks Up Most of Members and Takes Them Into Norfolk—Others How to Old Point.

[By Associated Press.]

NEWPORT NEWS, VA., Oct. 26.—

The fishing smack Margaret, foundered in the storm last night off Bug Light, Chesapeake Bay, with a probable loss of two lives. All but two of the crew of thirty-two have been accounted for.

Most of the men were picked up by the government tug Reno and taken into Norfolk, according to reports received at Old Point. It is believed that the two missing men left the foundering craft in a small boat.

The Margaret was out of Redsville, Va., and ran afoul of rough weather near the cape.

VESSEL CAUGHT IN TEETH OF ATLANTIC COAST STORM

NORFOLK, VA., Oct. 26.—Two men were lost and thirty-four others had a narrow escape off Thimble Shoals lighthouse last night, when the fishing schooner Margaret capsized. The vessel, which was coming in from the fishing grounds was caught in the teeth of the storm sweeping up the Atlantic Coast.

The captain and crew put off in the small boats, the two men lost being in a rowboat alone. The others were in two other larger craft and rowed through the night to Old Point Comfort, where they landed.

Great difficulty was experienced in making shore due to the high winds which increased during the night.

The men missing are Ivis Webb, white, of Redsville, Va., and Bib Taylor, negro, of Mills, Va.

The Margaret was owned by the Higgins Company, of Redsville, Va., and was in command of Captain H. J. Waller, of Fleeton. Her pilot was Captain John Pittman, of Remond.

Captain Waller, who arrived in Norfolk with the survivors this morning, said he did not believe the small boat in which Webb and Taylor put off could have survived the storm, and he believes they were drowned.

CRIDLIN SPEAKS AT HAMPDEN-SIDNEY

Explains Plans of Mammoth Historical Pageant to Student Body.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

HAMPDEN-SIDNEY, VA., Oct. 26.—W. B. Cridlin, secretary of the Virginia Historical Pageant Association, addressed the students of Hampden-Sidney College yesterday, explaining the plans for the mammoth pageant of Virginia history in Richmond next May.

Mr. Cridlin received the approval of the student body, president of the college, that the institution would take an active part in the pageant. An historical float and a number of representatives probably will be sent to Richmond.

Hampden-Sidney has one of the most colorful historical backgrounds of any college in the state. It is the second oldest college in the South, having been founded in 1776 when Virginia was an English colony.

Patrick Henry was one of the first trustees and he helped write the charter. William Henry Harrison, former president of the United States, was an alumnus of Hampden-Sidney.

LARGE CROWDS HEAR SENATOR TRINKLE

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

THIRSFOL, VA., Oct. 26.—An audience of more than 500 people, the largest of the year, heard Senator E. Lee Trinkle, of Wytheville, when he spoke in the Virginia courthouse Monday night.

Earlier in the day Senator Trinkle spoke at Abingdon, where the courthouse was packed.

Mr. Trinkle was introduced here by City Chairman H. G. Lavinier, and at Abingdon by County Chairman D. M. Mosby.

Frank W. DeFries, retiring Commonwealth's attorney, of Bristol, Va., who is seeking re-election to the General Assembly, and J. Walter Gray, also a candidate for the General Assembly, were speakers at both meetings.

Mr. Trinkle was scheduled to speak at Richmond Thursday, and at Farmville, Friday.

AWARD SCHOLARSHIPS OF ALBEMARLE CO. CLUE

$500 Prize Divided Equally Between Two Girl Competitors.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., Oct. 26.—The Albemarle County Club boys and girls did excellent work in competing for the six scholarships (one of $500 and five of $200 each) offered in the club work.

The judges found room improvement work of two girls so creditable that they recommended the $500 scholarship be divided equally, each getting a $250 scholarship.

The winners: Room Improvement Club—Betty Teel Miller and Lucy Via, of Free Union.

Cooking Club—Hortense Herring, of Profitt.

Sewing Club—Bertha Davis, of Free Union.

Garden Clubs—Lucy Moon, of Scottsville.

Poultry Garden—Viola Ward, of Meadows River.

Mrs. M. M. Davis, State home demonstration agent, Miss Belle Hodson, assistant poultry specialist, and Miss Belle Burke, district home demonstration agent, acted as judges and spent a week in the county inspecting the work of the competitors.

It was mainly through the generosity of Paul G. McIntire that these scholarships have been made possible, giving the club boys and girls of Albemarle County added opportunities of development which no other county in the South has yet given its members.

CONDITION OF KINGSPORT SHERIFF DECLARED BETTER

Was Shot October 16 by Alleged Moonshiner in Mountains Near Bristol.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

BHISTOL, VA., Oct. 26.—Deputy Sheriff J. W. Mosby, of Kingsport, who was seriously injured Monday a week ago, in a battle at a moonshine still in the mountains, will recover, physicians say, despite a steel-jacketed bullet from a 20-20 caliber rifle, which struck him in the side, piercing his liver and ranged upwards, coming out under his heart and shattering his left arm at the elbow.

At the time he was wounded, physicians said he would probably not live twenty-four hours. A statement given out at the Community Hospital in Kingsport today said: "Mosby is getting along fine. Unless something unforeseen happens, he will recover."

Lays on Ground for Hour.

Mosby shot and killed the youth who shot him and then lay on the ground for more than an hour before assistance arrived to take him to the hospital. He lost considerable blood and was unconscious when he arrived at the hospital. The only words he uttered at that time were: "Well, he got me, but I got him."

Physicians were amazed by the turn taken in Mosby's case. They expected him to die within twenty-four hours after he reached the hospital. The wounded deputy is a man of almost superhuman strength, and is a giant in height.

Declare War on Moonshiners.

As a result of the fight in which he was wounded, county officers have declared "war" on the moonshiners of this section, and two more gun fights have taken place at stills during the night. Another Kingsport, of Deer, C. T. Baker, was shot in the leg and painfully wounded in one of these raids, and more than a dozen arrests have been made.

Deputy Sheriff Charles Sell, of Bristol, one of Mosby's closest friends, has taken a leading part in the "war," and has captured three minor, Samuel, of Bedford, and still outlaws in the past week. The crusade against the blockade has extended to adjoining counties, where a marked revival of activity on the part of the prohibition officers has been noted.

FORMER TUCKER CLUB IS BUSY FOR TRINKLE

Norfolk County Democrats Organize in East Hambleton to Support Party Nominee.

NORFOLK, VA., Oct. 26.—At a meeting addressed by Alfred C. Smith, one of the unopposed candidates for the House of Delegates from Norfolk County, the East Hambleton Democratic Club was last night organized, with W. F. Berry president and three women holding other offices.

The club is made up largely of voters who supported Tucker for the gubernatorial nomination and was formed for the purpose of getting out the largest possible vote at the general election to be held on November 8.

Mr. Smith made a forceful speech and an effective appeal to the club to put forth its best efforts toward rolling up a big majority for the Democratic ticket next month. He explained why a heavy Democratic vote is desired at the general election.
